Someone threw a stone through one of the oval plate glass windows in Grant Holden's drug store Sunday night. A bunch of hoodlums usually congregate on Main street nights and cut up ungentlemanly. If this practice continues the Expositor will secure their names and make an example of them. Go to church or go to your homes boys; no better place for you. But for decency sake stop congregating on the streets.

At about ten-thirty Saturday evening and shortly after Mrs. Thomas Johnston had closed her store, the alarm of fire was given, the scene of which was quickly found to be her place of business. The fire was confined to the back part of the building, burning some articles of clothing and lounge, but the smoke penetrated to every part, and the stock of ladies' furnishings is more or less injured. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mrs. John has insurance on her stock. Her recent sale had luckily depleted her stock to a great extent.

The meeting called for Wednesday evening, Oct. 10, for the purpose of organizing into committees for work in soliciting for the second Liberty Loan drive, was not very largely attended. Wm. H. The talk was most interesting and was listened to very attentively. There will be a meeting of the committees in the Red Cross rooms next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 to receive instructions regarding the big drive which starts on Monday the 15th.
